PART IV SIX PAGES

SUNDAY, AUGUST 22, 1920

PART IV SIX PAGES

tions for Boxes at Exhibit Which Promises To Be Best Given at Resort Since Before the War

the outstanding features, but the outstanding features, but Mexico; A. P. McCord, James W. Barest was welcome, for last week ney, Wadsworth R. Lewis, William T. illed with social affairs, which Eldridge, and Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Hubthe summer colony on the go bard.

In the evening and early Mrs. DeLancey Kane arrived this hes necessitated them getting to Casino cariy in the morning. Señor Gusman Blanco, son of General Blanco, dictator and president of Ven-te annual horse show at the Ca-ezuela for many years, was a Newport sino, and this year it will be for the visitor this week. He was acc

Principal among the closing events it is the annual horse show at the Casino, and this year it will be for the benefit of the Newport Hospital. It promises to be one of the best shows ince before the war, according to some of the officials, Reginald C. Vanderbilt, this is at Sandy Point Farm, in discussing the prospects, declared that the state of the exhibit. Another foreign visitor to Newport the summer colony. James the summer colony. James town, where many prominent Philadelphia and St. Louis families pass the summer, also is interested in the show. It Thomas G. Asitton is on the horse show committee, and he always enters a fine string. He has taken a box, as the string. He has taken a box, as the string. He has taken a box, as the string will be summer colony. James the summer col

The state of the s

Round of Dinners Marks Week at Narragansett Pier

One of the Notable Functions Is Dance Given by Captain and Mrs. Emerson for Mr. and Mrs. F. H. McAdoo; Attended by More Than Fifty Guests

NARRAGANSETT PIER, R. I., Aug.
21.—August days are the gayest of the season at Old Narragansett and am- 3 bitious hostesses seem now to be amiably vying with one another in the art of Washing entertaining. Scarcely a villa in the ton Farr colony is without its quota of house son, of New York guests and the hotels, notably the Mas- Miss Jane Sands, of Ne guests and the noters, notating the district of the Ma sasoit and Imperial, are nearly filled is at the Ma Mrs. James C.

The polo tournament, which has given by Mrs. been a vitalizing factor in the social of St. Louis, at Sagamore villa and out-of-door life at the resort,

Mrs.

Hospital Is to Benefit By Newport's Horse Show

Many Members of Summer Colony Make Reserva-